Seen, Heard and Done Among Those Who Go, Come and Tarry—Women and Society, Here and Elsewhere.

BY MISS E. NELLIE BECK.

GOLDBACH—BELL.

There was a quiet wedding at 7 o'clock Wednesday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Bell, 609 North Eighth avenue, when their sister, Miss Annie A. Bell, and Mr. Victor Goldbach were married. Rev. Frederic Jones, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating.

The bride is a daughter of the late Rev. Mr. Bell, of Warrington, Fla., and the young people have the best wishes of all their friends for a long and happy married life.

THE BENEVOLENT SOCIETY.

The Ladies Benevolent Society of Temple Beth-El met Thursday afternoon and unanimously re-elected all the officers as follows:

President, Mrs. Max J. Kahn.
Vice-President, Mrs. Dave Levy.
Secretary, Mrs. S. A. Friedman.
Treasurer, Mrs. Laz Jacoby.
Trustees, Mrs. Otto Goldstucker, Mrs. P. Stone, Mrs. Dave Dannheisser.
Relief Committee, Mrs. Max L. Bear, Mrs. Sol Cahn.

The Society sent a check for the handsome sum of $50 to the Orphan's Home in New Orleans, in addition to the generous work constantly maintained throughout the year in Pensacola. The relief work is not in any sense sectarian. The committee never refuse a call for aid nor ask to what sect the callers may belong, if on investigation they prove to be sick or needy. The work of the Ladies Benevolent Society is another of this city's noble charities so quietly conducted that the general public has little idea of its breadth and worth, but it should be better known as an example and encouragement.

WEEK OF PRAYER.

The nightly services in the First Baptist church are increasing in interest and in helpfulness.

Last night the subjects were the Home, Foreign and Sunday school Boards, Mr. E. M. Wilson leading.

Rev. R. W. Brooks will lead the closing meeting to-night, the subject being "Papal Fields—Mexico, Italy, Brazil, Argentina and Cuba," with interesting incidents of the work in two talks of three minutes each on those fields.

Everybody is welcome.

GIFTS TO ORPHANAGE.

Contributions for the Baptist Orphanage are coming in slowly notwithstanding the promise of a number of good people to send in gifts of various kinds, and the time is very short, in which to pack the larger articles, which must all be ready to ship by Saturday night, as Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Chipley leave on the early train Monday morning.

Though called the Baptist Orphanage and conducted under the auspices of the Florida Baptist state convention, it is neither sectarian nor denominational, as all children are admitted.

The superintendent, Mrs. Bean, whom the children affectionately call "Mother Bean" and her husband, Rev. Mr. Bean, are both said to be ideal in their conduct toward and management of the children in the orphanage and it would well repay those interested to visit and investigate the noble work they are conducting under difficulties. Money, clothing, toys, furnishings in any amount, however small, will be gratefully received by Mrs. Jones at the Baptist parsonage or by Mrs. W. D. Chipley who will arrive to-morrow from Alabama. Kindly send or take donation at once.

CITY BOARD MEETING.

All the ladies interested in domestic missions are earnestly requested to meet with the members of the City Board this (Friday) afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. Thomas Hannan on East Gregory street.

J. N. ANDREWS, President.

U. D. C. ANNUAL MEETING.

Pensacola Chapter, U. D. C., will meet this afternoon at 3:30 at the residence of the first vice-president, Miss Leila Reese, and the meeting promises to be largely attended, as the business is of unusual interest, including the election of officers.

Interest in the entertainment of the state convention, which meets in Pensacola in May, naturally increases as the time approaches for that gathering of distinguished Daughters, which promises to be largely attended.

Part of to-day's program includes discussion as to ways and means of suitably entertaining the convention in May, including a report from the conference of the special committee Wednesday evening with a well-known local manager of amusements, which it is anticipated resulted favorably.

Remember the hour, 3:30.

Mr. J. C. Crosby has returned to Macon, Ga., after spending the holidays with Mrs. M. J. Clarke on East Gadsden, leaving Mrs. Crosby and little daughter, Janet, for a month's visit in the Deep Water City.

Miss Annie Lee Smith and Miss Lulu Smith of Dalton, Ga., who have been the recipients of so many pleasant attentions during their two weeks' visit to Miss Annie E. White and Miss Blanche White, 44 East Gregory, left for home Tuesday night. The Misses White gave their guests a charming outing on the bay New Year, including visits to the navy yard, the battleship Columbia and luncheon at the life saving station.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Dailey, corner Alcaniz and Strong streets, are the parents of a girl baby, born Wednesday night.

The Friday Euchre meets with Mrs. Bonifay on West Romana.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Cunningham, of Indiana, who spent New Year in this city en route south on their wedding journey, plan to return for March and April. Mrs. Cunningham was Miss Floride Houghton, whose mother, a dashing Southern girl and a bitter partisan during the war, married a northern man during reconstruction and went north where she died last May.

Mrs. W. D. Chipley is expected home to-morrow from Alabama.

"J. W." the two years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Friedman, who has been very ill, is all right now, to the joy of his parents and anxious friends.

The Whist meets with Mrs. Robert A. Hyer.

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L.L.D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale at all druggists.

AUSTRIAN MEMBER OF OF NORTH SEA COMMISSION.

Vienna, Jan. 5.—Admiral von Spaun, fifth member of the international commission of enquiry, started to-day for Paris, accompanied by Captain Winterholder and Lieutenant Baron Hauser, both experienced naval officers.

A Good Night's Rest.

The greatest tonic on earth is a good night's rest. Restless nights and the terrible exhaustion of a hacking cough are dread dangers of the poor consumptive. But why this fear of the night when a few doses of Dr. Boschee's German Syrup will insure refreshing sleep, entirely free from cough or night sweat? Free expectation is the morning is made certain by taking German Syrup. It has cured consumption for forty years. Trial bottle, 25c. Big bottle, 75c. At all druggists.

BISHOP TALBOT A MISSOURIAN

SOME OF HIS ANTECEDENTS BY
"PATHFINDER," WHICH POINT
TO HIS VINDICATION.

Editor Pensacola Journal

Rev. Bishop Ethelbert Talbot was born and reared in Howard county, Missouri, and in age must be in the 60s. He came of one of those staunch, influential families that now move in old Howard. Fayette, the county seat, and vicinity, has given to the world three bishops: Abel Leonard and Ethelbert Talbot, of the Episcopal church, and E. R. Hendrix, of the M. E. church. Ethelbert Talbot early exhibited a precocity in intellect and morals and was given an education, the best the country could afford, and became a marked man in address, sincerity and influence for good. He took orders and was rector at Macon City, Mo., where he successfully conducted a school, of high order, for boys and girls. During this interval he wooed and wed Miss Dora Harvey, a charming young woman of his native county. Of this happy union came a beautiful and accomplished daughter.

In a few years he was robed as bishop in the Northwest, covering the Wyoming Territory, and with ability and satisfaction discharged the functions of his office.

From thence he was promoted to a bishopric in New York and later to Pennsylvania.

The recent outburst of an old rupture with Rev. Ingram N. W. Irvine, unfrocked by Bishop Talbot some time since, has engaged the serious attention of the religious people, and the sensational maw has been offered a tempting morsel in brazen blare of trumpets that "Bishop Talbot's moral character is assailed," "surprising revelations to come," etc.

It now seems Bishop Talbot's trial, at Reading, will not come off on the 10th inst., schedule time; that the prosecutors declare their signatures, to the presentments against Bishop Talbot, were attached without their knowledge or consent; a new presentment is asked; Dr. Irvine has lost cast; that the vestry of St. John's church at Huntington, in a meeting by resolutions, unanimously affirm confidence in Bishop Talbot.

It will be hard to unseat Bishop Talbot in the confidence and esteem of those who know him.

The Reason You've Been "Soaked"

In buying Shoes is because they were made by a skimping manufacturer. It's easy to make a cent or two of extra, illegitimate profit by putting a few inches of shoddy leather in some hidden spot in a shoe. You can't tell it till you've worn it a few weeks, but then? Well, you know! Every hidden portion of a
